

Positively BIRMINGHAM Walking Tours

Red Brick Heart & Soul

A walking tour of the University of Birmingham and surrounds

Selected Saturday
Mornings
10.00 – 11.45

Book now at: www.positivelybirmingham.co.uk

Positively BIRMINGHAM Walking Tours

Red Brick Heart & Soul

- ◆ Metchley Roman Fort
- ◆ The first red brick university
- ◆ Public art including works by William Bloye
- ◆ The modern University and Birmingham Health Innovation Campus

This public walking tour starts and finishes at the Faraday statue, close to University Station and adjacent bus stops. The Worcester and Birmingham canal cycle path is nearby and there is cycle parking.

Accessibility: We can accommodate wheelchairs and mobility scooters but please let us know you are coming. For other access issues please email us to discuss.

Private tours: This tour is available as a group tour at a date and time of your choosing. Please email us your enquiry.

The Red Brick Heart & Soul tour is supported by bruntwood

SciTech

Bruntwood SciTech creates thriving innovation districts, providing environments for science and technology businesses to start and scale. Their latest development, Birmingham Health Innovation Campus, delivered in partnership with the University of Birmingham, is creating a world leading healthcare technologies hub.

Our other tours

If you enjoy Red Brick Heart & Soul, you will love our city centre tours, which run throughout the year.

Saturdays: From canals and Victorians to today's city

Sundays: Discovering Birmingham & the Jewellery Quarter

Check availability and purchase tickets on our website.

@ info@positivelybirmingham.co.uk @PositivelyBum

@positivelybrum YouTube YouTube channel: Positively Birmingham

Support for homeless projects

Positively Birmingham supports a charity working with homeless people in our city

Registered Charity No. 1049728.

Book now at: www.positivelybirmingham.co.uk